ON MARRIAGE

Christian Marriage in the Reformed Church tradition

Marriage is a gift God has given to all humankind for the well-being of the entire human family. Marriage involves a unique commitment between two people, to love and support each other for the rest of their lives. The sacrificial love that unites the couple sustains them as faithful and responsible members of the church and the wider community.

In civil law, marriage is a contract that recognizes the rights and obligations of the married couple in society. In the Reformed tradition, marriage is also a covenant in which God has an active part, and which the community of faith publicly witnesses and acknowledges.

Preparing for Marriage

If they meet the requirements of the civil jurisdiction in which they intend to marry, a couple may request that a service of Christian marriage be conducted by a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), who is authorized, though not required, to act as an agent of the civil jurisdiction in recording the marriage contract. A couple requesting a service of Christian marriage shall receive instruction from the teaching elder, who may agree to the couple's request only if, in the judgment of the teaching elder, the couple demonstrate sufficient understanding of the nature of the marriage covenant and commitment to living their lives together according to its values. In making this decision, the teaching elder may seek the counsel of the session, which has authority to permit or deny the use of church property for a marriage service.

This discussion is equally important in the case of a first marriage, a marriage after the death of a spouse, and a marriage following divorce.

Time and Place of the Service

The marriage service shall be conducted in a manner appropriate to this covenant and to the forms of Reformed worship, under the direction of the teaching elder and the supervision of the session (W-1.4004–.4006). In a service of marriage, the couple marry each other by exchanging mutual promises. The teaching elder witnesses the couple's promises and pronounces God's blessing upon their union. The community of faith pledges to support the couple in upholding their promises; prayers may be offered for the couple, for the communities that support them, and for all who seek to live in faithfulness.

Recognizing Civil Marriage

A service of worship recognizing a civil marriage and confirming it in the community of faith may be appropriate when requested by the couple. The service will be similar to the marriage service except that the statements made shall reflect the fact that the couple is already married to one another according to the laws of the civil jurisdiction.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE MINISTER

1. Authority to officiate and carry out wedding policies. Generally, one of the pastors of this church will officiate at weddings conducted in the church. The Pastor may delegate decisions and responsibilities under this policy generally or case-by-case to other clergy associated with this congregation, including Parish Associates and other clergy who regularly participate in the life of Faith Presbyterian. In this section, "Minister" means the Pastor or any of these associated clergy the Pastor has authorized to act. A clergy member not associated with this church is referred to as an "Invited Minister."
2. General membership policy for weddings. Ordinarily, at least one person in a couple should be a member of Faith Presbyterian Church. Exceptions may be made at the Pastor's discretion for persons having a particular connection with Faith Presbyterian Church. Nonmembers will have to be approved by session
3. An introductory pre-marital session must be arranged at least four months in advance of the wedding, except under extraordinary circumstances for which the Minister may make exception. Additional pre-marital sessions shall be scheduled with the Minister and may include participation in a Pre-Marital Workshop. During this time of sharing, areas of discussion may include: future plans, the role and commitment of faith and spiritual development in marriage, mutual support and responsibilities, time and financial planning, sexual relationships, adjustment after marriage, family relationships.
4. If a couple requests that an Invited Minister officiate at the wedding, permission will be given at the discretion of the Pastor. Oversight of the pre-marital sessions is the responsibility of the officiating clergy, whether a Minister or Invited Minister. An Invited Minister may not change or waive any of the policies or procedures of this church for a wedding conducted in this church, including counseling requirements, without the permission of the Pastor.
5. The date of the wedding and rehearsal must be set in consultation with the Minister and as allowed by the church program calendar.
6. The couple will meet with the Minister or Invited Minister to discuss plans for the conduct of the service. These may include: scriptures to be read, music to be sung or played, other participants and their roles, the form and language of vows the couple will make, and information about the lives and faith of the couple that may be incorporated into the proclamation of the Word. A request by the couple to celebrate the Lord's Supper as a part of wedding service requires the approval of the Session.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

1. Music should always direct attention to God, and selections that are secular in orientation may not be used. All music and all persons performing music at the worship service are subject to the approval of the pastor (s) and the church organist. Another organist may play, if approved by the church organist.
2. If the couple chooses to have organ or piano music in their wedding, arrangements must be made with this church's organist. The couple is responsible for contacting the organist as soon as possible after the wedding date is set in order to assure his/her services and to arrange music selections.

3. Use of the organ or piano by a musician other than the church organist must be approved by the church organist. This is for the protection of the instrument. It is assumed that the church organist will approve competent organists.
4. If vocalists or additional instruments are to be used along with the organist, their rehearsal times must be coordinated with the organist.

AGREEMENTS WITH THE CHURCH

1. The couple must receive the wedding policies of Faith, including the fee schedule.
2. No dates are confirmed on the church's calendar until:
 - The Pastor, or an Invited Minister approved by the Pastor, agrees to perform the wedding
 - Each party in the couple has signed the Wedding Agreement
 - The deposit is paid.
3. The couple will work with the church liaison, which will provide the couple with information on church procedures for use of facilities, and related matters.
4. Payments should be made to the church or to individuals as directed in the fee schedule.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE CHURCH LIAISON

1. The church liaison is approved by the Worship Team to help a couple make use of the facility. They do not serve as a wedding coordinator.
2. The church liaison will work with the couple, the Minister, the Office Administrator, and Business Management to make arrangements for scheduling, facilities, and the ceremony.
3. Ordinarily, no more than one wedding will be scheduled on any one day and no more than two during a single month.
4. Ordinarily, no weddings are scheduled on Sundays unless a request is made to include them in Sunday morning worship.
5. Facilities provided include the Sanctuary, the Narthex, the Library, the Youth Room and restrooms.
6. The Fellowship Hall may also be reserved for receptions. When the Fellowship Hall is reserved for a reception, arrangements for its use and set-up will be made with the church liaison.
7. The officiating Minister and church liaison will arrange for opening and closing the church building for the rehearsal and the wedding.
8. The church liaison and the Office Administrator will arrange for the areas used to be cleaned before needed for other events.

AGREEMENTS ON PHOTOGRAPHY DURING THE SERVICE

Photography is restricted during the worship service as follows:

- No flash photography or special lights may be used
- Still photography and/or videography may be taken only from a single, stationary location, coordinated with the Minister or Invited Minister.
- The “worship service” is defined as beginning with the Call to Worship and ending with the Benediction.

USE OF CHURCH FACILITIES

1. Simplicity in decorating is encouraged.
2. Flower arrangements should be appropriately designed for the chancel of the church. Flowers shall not be placed on the Communion Table. The florist should be scheduled to bring the flowers no later than two hours before the ceremony and arrange the flowers as previously planned.
3. Two candelabra are available for use with liquid candles.
4. The communion table stands as a reminder of the table of Jesus Christ. It may not be removed, nor is it appropriate to place on it items other than paraments, candles, chalice and plate.
5. Christmas and other seasonal decorations may be enjoyed for your ceremony but will not be removed for weddings
6. Any additional decorations must be discussed and approved by the church liaison and will be acquired by the wedding party.
7. All decorations will be removed from the Sanctuary by the wedding party after the wedding.
8. No nails, tacks, tapes or other means shall be used to attach flowers or other decorations to church furniture (including pews), walls, or fixtures.
9. Rice and confetti of any sort may not be thrown in the church buildings or any walkways around the church. Upon the couple’s departure from the church, birdseed may be used as an alternative.
10. The church is not responsible for any articles left in the facilities during or after the wedding.
11. No smoking is permitted in church buildings.
12. No alcoholic beverages are permitted on church property without the permission of session.
13. Access to the church can take place during normal operating hours of the church (M-F 9-5). After hours access, requires the presence of staff member or the church liaison and arrangements must be made seven days in advance with the Church Liaison. After hours access will count toward the Church Liaison's fees.

14. It is expected that the use of facilities for a reception will not exceed six hours, including set-up and clean up. Tables and chairs are available and may be coordinated with the church liaison or Office Administrator. Those using facility are responsible for setting up and replacing all items used. The facilities must be left in order and vacated by 11:00 PM.

ARRANGEMENTS WITH CATERERS

1. The wedding party must identify to the church liaison as soon as possible the caterer that is expected to cater the reception. In cooperation with the church liaison, a caterer may be allowed into the kitchen to view the facilities in advance of the wedding date. The church liaison may prohibit the use of any caterer based on prior negative experience.
2. Caterers may have access to the kitchen and Social Hall for set-up not earlier than 2 hours before the reception is expected to begin. Caterers should ordinarily arrive with most food prepared and requiring only heating and setting out; the amount of time scheduled in the Social Hall does not ordinarily allow for extensive cooking or other preparation in the church kitchen. Caterers are expected to set up quietly when set-up takes place at the same time as the service in the Sanctuary.
3. Arrangements must be made by the wedding party or the caterer for removing leftover food and supplies from the kitchen and Social Hall. Supplies and non-perishable food items may be donated to the church, but perishable food may not be left without prior permission.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS/MARRIAGE LICENSE

The couple shall give to the pastor(s) the completed requisite copies of the marriage license of the State of Indiana (the marriage license, two copies of the marriage certificate, and the record of marriage) at least one week before the worship service. If at least one person is a resident of Marion County, the license may be obtained from the City-County Building. Check with the City County office as to what fees and paperwork are required. If a wedding license is not presented prior to the wedding, the wedding will not be performed.

CONDUCT

Anyone whose behavior is impaired by the use of drugs or alcohol will not be allowed to take part in the wedding ceremony or rehearsal. The Minister or Invited Minister is authorized to make this decision and to cancel the wedding service, if necessary. Please notify all participants, family and attendants of this policy.

I have read this agreement and understand and will abide by the policies of Faith Presbyterian Church. We understand that Faith Presbyterian Church reserves right to cancel our wedding if it deems that these policies have been violated.
